

only for location

The Wharf Hotel, San Francisco, USA

11/18/2018

This as everyone says is a great location. Inside it is old and kind of yucky with small elevators and typical crap bathrooms. The best part other than the proximity to the Wharf is the fire pit outside. It's gas and it lets you hang out even when the weather is brisk. As far as a drink goes, there is a 7/11 kind of store right around the corner on the way to the water...works for us! The pool is outside but heated and has nice landscaping. We were with a reunion so did not have to deal w/the parking price but it was pretty high.

Reviewer: Estela Pollard